Zadanie 1.

1.1.

Woman: In a minute we'll enter the gallery and we'll see a special collection of Sam Smith's paintings. Sam was a student of our school and he started with painting flowers. We even have one of such paintings on the wall in the principal's office. Some of you could also see his well-known paintings of our city streets and buildings. But today we'll see an exhibition of portraits. I hope you'll like them.

Boy: Ugh! I'm bored. I sit in front of the TV all day!

Girl: Why don't we go to the swimming pool together? Or maybe... let's go jogging. It's the best sport for me! Basketball's also nice.

Boy: Basketball sounds fun... for watching on TV. And there's a problem... I can't swim!

Girl: Don't worry, I'll teach you! So, what about tomorrow at 10 a.m.?

Boy: OK. Maybe I'll finally learn?

1.3.

Girl: Hi Lily. It's Olivia. I have some info about the Earth Day. We're cleaning the forest this year. Take two pairs of plastic gloves – one pair for you and one for me. Everybody has to bring some plastic bags but I've got a lot so you don't have to take any. And after the cleaning we're having a bonfire and Mrs. Spencer's bringing sausages for everybody!

Girl: Dad, look at this magazine. Can you see that photo? THIS is my dream room!

Man: Wow, that desk's really ugly. You really like it? What's wrong with your old one?

Girl: Well, OK, maybe not the desk. But check out the rug!

Man: Hmm, it's OK but I think you should have something darker.

Girl: You're right. But the bed's amazing, isn't it?

Man: Yeah, it's really nice.

Girl: Great! So when will we start the renovation?

Man: Ehm... what?

1.5.

Girl: Mum, why aren't you picking up the phone! I did everything like in the recipe. I mixed the eggs with flour and milk, I put the mixture in the oven for 45 minutes but the cake doesn't look like in the picture. It's flat and white. What should I do now?

Zadanie 2.

Boy: Hi Jennifer! You're finally at school! Where were you?

Girl: Oh, hi Tony. You won't believe it, but all my family had health problems!

Boy: Oh, no! Did you have a cold? Mark and Maggie weren't at school either because of a horrible cold.

Girl: No, I twisted my ankle. I had to go to the doctor to have an X-ray. It's nothing serious and I'm OK now. But my mum was so worried that she got a terrible headache!

Boy: Is she better now?

Girl: Yeah, she just had to relax. But it's hard to relax with my older brother. Yesterday he had a stomachache.

Boy: Really?

Girl: Yeah, he shouldn't eat hamburgers all the time.

Boy: You're right. You can even get food poisoning if the meat's not fresh.

Girl: Exactly! But what about you Tony? You weren't at the basketball training last week. Did you have the flu?

Boy: Flu? No! I just totally forgot about it!

Zadanie 3.

Woman: I'd like to remind you that tomorrow we'll have some visitors from abroad. A group of students from Liverpool is going to spend a week in our city and then they'll fly back to England. I'm looking for volunteers who'd like to show them around our city after classes. You can take up to three students with you. Remember that they don't know any Polish so try to speak English while you're with them. It's a great chance to practise your English! I know that last year people were inviting English students to their homes for dinner but don't do it this year. We're organizing a Polish and English Food day on Friday so they can try our national specialties then. So, do I have any volunteers?

Zadanie 4.

4.1.

Girl: Are you taking part in the running competition?

4.2.

Boy: Talk to me for a minute.

4.3.

Girl: Lizzy was looking for you. She wanted to tell you something.

4.4.

Boy: Why are you running?
